Hon. Richard Helms
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Helms:

Although you were not able to attend our conference on the 25th anniversary of Pearl Harbor Eve, you expressed interest in the related problems of NATO, Soviet cybernetics, technological surprise, Red China's nuclear capabilities and the reality of detente.

Enclosed is a copy of the Proceedings of our Inter-professional Forum.

The headlines in 1967 indicate that our collective definition of priorities last December was surprisingly accurate.

Our Center continues to receive requests from corporations, trade associations and universities to schedule similar sessions on National Strategy. These programs vary from two-hour briefings through half-day workshops to three-day seminars.

If you know of groups interested in this type of inter-professional analysis, please let us know. We need to put the "one trillion dollar question" of defense on the civilian agenda.

With best regards, I am

Faithfully,

Frank R. Barnett

Dear Mr. Barnett:

Thank you very much for the copy of the Proceedings of your Interprofessional Forum. I found the publication a succinct account of the principal themes presented at the meetings. Those who participated in the Forum should have benefited greatly from this exchange of information and ideas.

Cordially,

Richard Helms
